BARBARIAN®

Barbarian has been making rugby jerseys since 1981 and even to this day, many people do not know that we actually knit our own fabric and manufacture the garments right here, in Canada. We employ not only locally, but we also use dozens of suppliers from all over North America, including the use of the world's highest grade cotton grown in the U.S. Delta Region.

Our ability to make short custom production runs grew from our capacity to make traditional - on-field - game cotton jerseys... no other fashion worn rugby shirt on the market today can make that claim. Synonymous with quality and built to game day specifications, Barbarian is one of the few truly authentic brands of rugby apparel.

From traditional rugby jerseys, custom shirt and different methods of decoration, please visit www.barbarian.com.

YESTERDAY - TODAY - TOMORROW

Barbarian Sportswear was founded in 1981 by Bill Hartle. Bill saw an opportunity to manufacture a world quality rugby kit domestically. With a strong attention to durability & design, Barbarian products were developed to withstand the rigours of grueling rugby match yet give a unique look while maintaining optimal performance. Soon teams from across Canada began asking for the brand. In the first 2 years, a network of stores throughout Canada sold Barbarian products to the rugby market.

In 1983 Barbarian was introduced to the Canadian University Spirit wear market. The fact that Barbarian could make a rugby shirt in small lots, in school colours and with custom embroidery made it a good fit for college and university bookstores like Queens, UBC and Dalhousie. Barbarian quickly began to expand into the United States in both team and university markets. Customers included Harvard, Penn State and University of California, Berkeley.

In 1995 the company built a dedicated, state of the art, manufacturing facility in Kitchener, Ontario, where it continues to manufacture today. From 2003 - 2007 Barbarian was the official supplier for the Canadian National Rugby Team. In 2009 Barbarian uniforms were used by Matt Damon & Morgan Freeman in the hit movie, Invictus, about the South African rugby team's sensational victory at the World Cup.

In 2013 Barbarian was purchased by Steve Wagner, an entrepreneur with 25 years of experience in the sporting goods industry. Steve was an avid rugby player in his youth, with credits including Carleton University Varsity Team Captain, OUAA All-Star Team, Vancouver Island under 21 select team and MVP at Royal Roads Military College. With Steve's background in rugby, design and the sporting goods industry, Barbarian will continue to evolve and draw on its strong heritage.

From the initial design, to knitting, cutting and sewing the fabric, the staff at Barbarian is dedicated to producing the highest quality products that live up to the history and reputation of the Barbarian brand.
